Abolition!

Email abolitionministry@yahoo.com

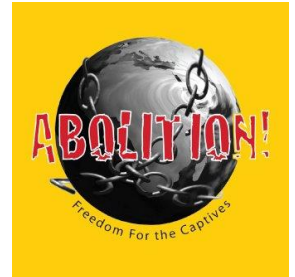

Website <https://www.facebook.com/pages/Abolition/198305925551>

About

Isaiah 61:1b, 2b The Lord has sent us to bind up the broken hearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners, and to comfort all who mourn.

Mission

We believe it is God's call for Abolition! To raise awareness of the issue of human trafficking by educating our community while helping our partner organizations with resources to accomplish more, undergirded by a radical focus on prayer and petitioning God on behalf of the victims – and even the perpetrators. We want to equip our members and others with action steps to effectively respond to the evils of human trafficking. Additionally, we hope to create a model that can be replicated in other communities and churches. Operates out of Greensboro, NC.

<https://www.facebook.com/crossroadscompassion>

About

Crossroads Compassion Project and its volunteers and advocates will work to meet the basic physical, spiritual and emotional needs of orphans, impoverished and "at-risk" children in Eastern Europe and the rest of the world, and to promote education as an alternative to human trafficking.

Description

Crossroads Compassion Project works with orphaned and "at-risk" girls in the country of Moldova, when they are put out of the state run orphanages. We have a home for girls in the capital city – Chisinau. In July of 2015 we will open our first home for boys. In August of 2015, we will launch "Compassion in Action – Appalachian Outreach". This will be a domestic project to assist 653 children in Welch, WV with physical and material needs, and to raise awareness about human trafficking in the U.S. Future plans include similar outreach to Native American Indians of the Cherokee, Lakota and Sioux Nations.

Psalm 10:17-18 (NLT)

"LORD, you know the hopes of the helpless. Surely you will hear their cries and comfort them. You will bring justice to the orphans and the oppressed, so mere people can no longer terrify them."

About

Partners Against Trafficking Humans in NC is a non-profit coalition of concerned organizations and citizens working together to raise public awareness and foster community actions to end human trafficking in North Carolina. Our vision is the absence of human trafficking in our society.

Description

Our approach is to identify issues and initiate actions to address them. Partners can volunteer to contribute their skills and interest to whichever initiatives they select. The framework to carry out the initiatives is provided by the organization and its leadership team. The focus is to communicate, connect, cooperate, and collaborate with all within the community about ending human trafficking! If you would like to be involved in our planning, we invite you to our monthly meetings on the first Wednesday of the month at Hayes Barton United Methodist Church, 2209 Fairview Road, Raleigh, NC, 27608 in Room 320. Currently we meet from 3:00 pm to 5:00pm. If you would like to take action as an individual or as a group within your community, we invite you to contact us and we can establish a way to incorporate you or your group into our overall efforts. We are happy to share our resource library and research files as well as our collective knowledge and experiences.

About

The Salvation Army began Project FIGHT or Freeing Individuals Grippled by Human Trafficking in 2011.

The program provides case management, awareness / education, outreach and collaboration across NC.

Description

Offices are located in Raleigh, New Bern and Salisbury Salvation Army sites. The program consists of a coordinator, four full-time case managers and fifteen-thirty volunteers per month. The case management portion of the program works with all survivors of human trafficking, whether involved in commercial sex or commercial labor. While case management can be limited to technical assistance and referrals for services, it can also be long term. All Project FIGHT staff provide education and training on the subject of human trafficking. The program collaborates with other agencies to participate in outreach, rapid response team assistance and community outreach teams.

About

Triad Ladder of Hope is a faith based, not for profit ministry dedicated to eradicating slavery ... the exploitation of men, women, and children.

Mission

To eradicate the enslavement and exploitation of innocent individuals by Rebuilding Lives and Giving Hope One Step at a Time

Description

Triad Ladder of hope is a faith based nonprofit dedicated to eradicating the exploitation, sale and enslavement of men, women, and children. We are privately funded through individual donations, church partnerships, Christian or foundation grants. Slavery is not a global problem; it is not a federal problem nor is it a state problem. It is a community problem. Human trafficking is the fastest growing international crime and the number two crime in the US. We strongly believe it is our responsibility as the Body of Christ to be active in stopping this crime in our communities. We want to be a light and a voice for victims sharing the love and Hope of Jesus. Triad Ladder of Hope is active in working with rescued victims; rebuilding lives and giving hope one step at a time. About

Bringing the Light of God's love to women in the adult entertainment industry in Winston-Salem, NC.

Description

StreetLight is an outreach ministry of women and men all over our city who have a heart to serve women in the adult entertainment industry. Our earnest desire is that each and every woman would know she is supported, valuable, and LOVED so much by her community and by her Creator God. Our objective is to provide support and care for women in the adult entertainment industry in tangible ways through relationship-building, prayer, and connecting them with community resources including free/discounted counseling services, crisis support, shelter, and healthcare. We visit several adult entertainment venues in Winston-Salem on a monthly basis, bringing in gift bags, baked goods, and snacks while offering a 24-hour support telephone line to the female employees.

Jesus said, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." - John 8:12
